FRENCH IS ENTHUSIASTIC.

Confident About the Western Normal's Future.

President R. C. French, of the Western Normal School, was a visitor last night, returning home this morning. He was here on business connected with the school, and is enthusiastic over the condition and work being done there.

He has been fortunate in securing an able corps of teachers in all the departments, the attendance is very large, and the general condition of the school is first-class. He is now preparing his report for the use of the use of the legislature in determining the amount of money to be appropriated for the school for the coming two years.

On next Monday, Representatives Chamberlain and Blakeley, of this county, and also Representative Wheelson, of The Dalles district, will visit the school for the purpose of investigating the conditions, as they were unable to be present at the recent visit of Senators Smith and Pierce, and Representative Cole.

The attendance at the Normal is growing so rapidly that additional dormitory facilities must be had. At present the quarters are crowded and with the increased attendance of another year, it will be impossible to accommodate the students. The grounds have been improved and beautified during the past year, and the facilities for conducting the school added to, until it is now possible to carry on the work at a minimum expense.

With a new dormitory, the institution will be thoroughly equipped and able to meet any demand upon it.

WILL FEED THE POOR.

Salvation Army Makes an Appeal for Provisions.

Pendleton, Dec. 2.—(To the Editor.)—The great work of providing a free Xmas dinner for the poor has become a part of the religion of the Salvation Army. Every year baskets by the thousands are filled with a good substantial dinner such as turkey or chicken, bread, butter, two or three kinds of vegetables, nuts, candies and fruits, the size of the basket and the quantity will of course be in accordance with the size of the family.

The local workers of this army are preparing to look after every poor or needy family of Pendleton on Xmas, and anyone knowing of a family which is in need, would confer a favor upon the army if they would drop a postal to Ensign Paul Heisinger, or just address the Salvation Army, and we will at once put the family upon our list and remember that at Xmas time.

Now, it will take a great deal of time, money and hard work to push this work through, but the army will gladly do the work if friends will rally to our assistance financially. Gifts of money, provisions, fruits, nuts, vegetables and candy will be thankfully received.

Please take this matter up at once and decide upon what your contribution shall be.

ENSIEN PAUL HEISINGER,
610 West Bluff street.

SUCCESSFUL TEST.

Fire Extinguished in Presence of a Large Crowd by Use of Dry Powder.

A demonstration of putting out fire by dry powder was watched with interest on Main and Alta streets last night. A large box was filled with wood and a couple of gallons of coal oil applied, making a fire so hot the crowd was driven back to a respectful distance. The flames shot up as high as the Savings Bank building, the wood crackling and burning fiercely when with part of one extinguisher the demonstrator put the fire entirely out in about four seconds.

Mr. Howard, the agent, will be here several days and will call upon the business men, who will no doubt be interested in this fire extinguisher, as it certainly does the work. Other tests will be given in a few days.

A most astonishing order has been issued by the dowager empress of China, considering that she is the embodiment of reactionary conservatism. It is to the effect that all the soldiers in the Chinese regular army must cut their cues and adopt uniforms of European pattern.
